Enterprise integration, operated for you.

Business-critical data has to move between your systems, your banks and your trading partners, each with its own formats and protocols, under changing standards. Running that yourself takes scarce skills and infrastructure. Omnea runs the integration layer for you, so data moves securely and you don't run the plumbing.

WHY IT TEAMS CHOOSE OMNEA

1

One environment for every partner

Banks, suppliers, service providers and regulators, by file or API, whatever protocol they use.

2

Specialist messaging handled

SWIFT, ISO 20022, securities messaging and SARS submissions, through dedicated products.

3

Secured at every layer

IBM Sterling for files, Axway for APIs, operated under ISO 27001.

4

Run for you, or supported for you

A fully managed service, or support for the IBM Sterling environment you run yourself.

Overleaf: the evidence behind each point, and how to start.
